“ For over 10 years gtd healthcare has used a managed support agreement with Pearson Solicitors for the provision of employment law advice. We work closely with their employment solicitor Susan Mayall who is exceptional in every way. Her advice is always professional but she is also very personable, calm and responsive to our queries - of which there are many! Susan's support is invaluable through every stage of complicated HR processes. Susan has taken the time to understand our business and her advice demonstrates her vast experience and knowledge. Susan has huge integrity and is wonderful to work with. ”
